8 WELCOME TO BI-BRIGHT ACADEMY. NOW YOU CAN EXPLORE IT...

If you are a teacher or a student, make your registration, and join us.

Here, in Bi-Bright academy, you can search a lot of activities, lesson plans, contents, worksheets, videos, material, ideas, software and games, with different subjects, for all ages. Interactive games are very important, they involve students actively in their learning. Digital games require collaboration with others, and involve developing values, insights, and new knowledge.

If you are a corporate, partner, provider, distributor, installer, or simply a user of IWB, make your registration, and join us.

This platform intends also to be a support channel, not only for teachers and students, but also to corporates, partners, providers, distributors, installers and all kind of IWB users, providing tools and courses to help in IWB practice.

An IWB is a 21st century tool that allows the engagement of users and provide interactivity, creativity, collaboration and communication. By using this technology we can help users to promote higher order thinking skills.

As a producer we have the role to promote the access to contents, experiences and learning.
